Ramblings

Today we celebrate the Baptism of the Lord. And we hear the Father say "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased." This communication of God the Father with Jesus helps us to understand the intimate relationship that Jesus has with God the Father. It is a sign of God's desire to be in relationship with us and with the whole cosmos! What a gift, the freely given grace which opens us to intimate relationships with God and one another!

I wonder if we were to change that last line of the gospel a bit and insert our name where it says son-"This is my beloved ____ (insert your name here) _____, with whom I am well pleased." Perhaps to sit with this in prayer and wallow in the fact that God calls you by name! To appreciate and recognize how God is present in your life and how God longs and desires to live in you and through you! It is this, a deep and intimate relationship with God that we have been gifted with in our Baptism!

With the celebration of the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord the Christmas season comes to a close and we move into winter ordinary time. And so as we move from this holy season I would like to express my gratitude to many for all that was done to make Advent/Christmas a very special holy season.

...to all those who served as Liturgical Ministers, you helped us all touch Jesus in a special way

...to all the Art and Environment Committee, you helped us see the beauty of the seasons

...to all those involved in the Children's Pageant, you helped us live the Sacred story in action

...to all who gifted me with gifts I am truly grateful for your expressions appreciation

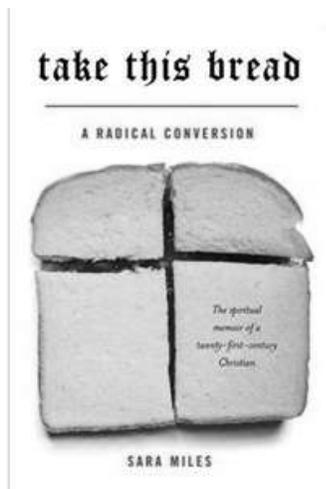

...and to all who gifted this community in any way know you are welcome and loved

May the light of the Star of Bethlehem continue to illuminate your hearts with love!

On a personal note, you may have noticed I was not here at the parish this weekend. I have been accepted into the Spiritual Guidance Training Program with the Racine Dominicans up in Wisconsin. It is a two year program that meets 16 times in a two year period. So there will be some weekends that I will not be here and Fr Ron and others will be filling in. I am excited about the program and the opportunities it offers for my own spiritual and professional growth.

Fr Terry

TAKE THIS BREAD?

Have you ever wondered how to really live your faith?
What does it mean to live like Jesus?
Is it really possible to live like a Christian in the world in our times?
What do you mean when you say AMEN to receiving communion?
How has Eucharist worked to bring about transformation in the way you live for others?

If these or any other questions have ever crossed your mind or kept you awake then there is a group forming for you!

This group will meet at the rectory at a mutually agreed upon date and time to read and discuss the book "TAKE THIS BREAD" by Sara Miles. Here are a few of the comments from the back cover:

"Engaging, funny, and highly entertaining... Why would any thinking person become a Christian? is one of the questions she addresses, and her answer is also compelling reading."

-BOOKLIST

"Rigorously honest, TAKE THIS BREAD demonstrates how hard -and how necessary-it is to welcome everyone to the table, without exception." -San Francisco Chronicle

"Moving, delightful and significant." -The Christian Century

If you would be interested in being part of this circle of faith, call the rectory at 708.748.6891 or email the office at stirenaeus@archchicago.org. Let's journey together!

Baptism of the Lord

“In truth, I see that God shows no partiality. Rather, in every nation whoever fears him and acts uprightly is acceptable to him.” - Acts 10:34-35

St. Peter reminds us that from the very beginnings of the Catholic Church everyone was invited to participate. We cannot be an “us” and “them” Church. By our common Baptism, we are all united with Jesus in carrying out His work here on earth. God shows no partiality but He does expect all to be active in living and building up the faith.

Reflections on Today's Readings January 9 Baptism of the Lord

1st Reading: Isaiah 42:1-4, 6-7.

In this, the first of Isaiah's four "Servant Songs," he prophesies of the One who is to come, the One who will "bring forth justice to the nations." Isaiah's prophecy comes from his Book of Consolation as the time nears for the end of the Babylonian exile. He has already proclaimed to the captives that their redemption is at hand. Now, as he begins building their hopes for the reestablishment of the kingdom, he tells them that the One who will bring about justice for them will be a much different Messiah than they expect.

Psalm 29:1-2, 3-4, 9-10.

The voice of the Lord is over the waters." The Psalmist sings of the peace with which the Lord blesses his people. The image of water suggests the waters of baptism.

2nd Reading: Acts 10:34-38.

Peter preaches to Cornelius and the people, all Gentiles, assembled at Cornelius' house, of the baptism which John brought and of the baptism with the Holy Spirit and power with which God anointed his Chosen One. God had appeared in a dream to Peter, instructing him to meet with Cornelius and offer him and the Gentiles salvation. Thus, the servant of whom Isaiah prophesied, was formed as "a covenant of the people, a light for the nations."

Gospel: Matthew 3:13-17.

Jesus came to John the Baptist at the River Jordan to be baptized. John protested, "I should be baptized by you, yet you come to me!" Jesus answered, "Give in for now. We must do this if we would fulfill all of God's demands." So John gave in. After Jesus was baptized, the sky opened and the Spirit of God descended like a dove and come upon him. A voice from the heavens said, "This is My beloved Son. My favor rests on Him."

John the Baptist was a transition prophet, the last of the Old Testament prophets, of whom he was representative. He stood with one foot in the desert, symbol of the Old Law out of which he came, and the other in the water, symbol of Baptism and gateway to the New Covenant. He heralded the fulfillment of prophecy and the coming of the Messiah in the person of Jesus. All the other Old Testament prophets told their people of the Messiah who was to come. John the Baptist came to tell the people, "Here He is!"

On the Third Sunday of Advent, Jesus told us (Matthew 11:11), "Amen, I say to you, among those born of women there has been none greater than John the Baptist; yet the least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he." Jesus said this, not to diminish John the Baptist in any way, but to recognize Himself (Jesus) as God's greatest gift of love. The Law, under which John was born, empowered him to cleanse but not to sanctify. We are born of the waters of baptism into Jesus, Son of God; true God and true man. We become the Body of Christ, part of His Kingdom on Earth, and will be a part of His Kingdom in Heaven. Jesus sanctifies us. He shares our humanity with us and, through Him, we share in the very divinity of God. In Christ we have eternal life.

Jesus later told His disciples (Matthew 13:17) how blessed they were to be living in the time when He, the Messiah, was in their midst: "Amen, I say to you, many prophets and righteous people longed to see what you see but did not see it, and to hear what you hear but did not hear it."
